Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 14 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cloudy. Patchy rain. Drier, brighter in north.

Today:
Dull and damp morning across central and southern Scotland with patchy rain, then drier and a little brighter this afternoon. Brighter day in north with a few showers, the best of sunshine and highest temperatures over Moray and north Highlands.

Tonight:
Mainly dry with a few clear periods. Scattered showers will affect the West Coast and parts of northern Scotland. Light winds.

Wednesday:
A lot of dry weather with sunny spells developing. Scattered showers mainly in the north and west, the odd heavier one possible in the afternoon.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Dry, bright on Thursday then strengthening southerly winds and rain edging in on Thursday night. Rain clearing eastwards during Friday with lighter winds, then drier, brighter weather returning on Saturday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.